PLANNING YOUR JOURNEY:

Allow Enough Time

We advise you to arrive at the Barclaycard Arena early, to make sure you don't miss out on any of the afternoon's action.

Travelling by Road

The Barclaycard Arena is situated in the heart of Birmingham City Centre; therefore you can travel from any direction by using the following motorways - M1, M5, M6, M6 Toll, M40 and M42. Click here for live traffic updates.

If you're using a Sat Nav, the postcode is B1 2AA.

Car Parking

The Barclaycard Arena has over 2,000 on-site car park spaces across four car parks. It's pay and display so they're open all day every day.

Other car parks are available nearby, the closest being in Brindley place, which you can access via Sheepcote Street or Cambridge Street, just a quick walk from the Barclaycard Arena. Visit the handy Parkopedia website for more information.

Travelling by Train

The Barclaycard Arena is in the city centre so just a short walk from Birmingham New Street, Moor Street, Snow Hill and Five Ways train stations. Alternatively, each station is only a few minutes away by Taxi.

Travelling by Bus

Buses run past the Arena all day long, visit networkwestmidlands for details. If you've travelled by coach to Digbeth coach station, the Arena is a 30-minute walk or a short taxi ride. We'd definitely suggest the latter.

Ones to watch

The world's biggest athletes will line up at the Barclaycard Arena for the Sainsbury's Indoor Grand Prix.

Olympic, world and European champion Mo Farah will run over 2 miles in the final event of the day and fellow British Olympic champion Greg Rutherford will also entertain the sell-out crowd as he competes in the long jump.

The sprints will also be hotly contested as James Dasaolu and world indoor champion Richard Kilty lead the British charge against international stars such as Kim Collins in the men's 60m. In the women's equivalent, rising star Dina Asher-Smith will face American Carmelita Jeter, the second fastest 100m runner of all time, and the Ivory Coast's 4 time world silver medallist Murielle Ahoure.
